Kapaun Mt. Carmel High School

SUCCESS STORY

WICHITA, KANSAS

Keep the school community connected

Kapaun Mt. Carmel High School wanted campus communication to keep pace with a busy calendar. A NEXT LED outdoor sign gives the Wichita school a visible place to share student achievements, event invitations and timely updates with families and the wider community.

THE CHALLENGE

A busy calendar, a static sign

Labor-intensive changes. The previous sign required manual work whenever the message changed.

A need for wider visibility. The school wanted to reach families and neighbors passing the campus each day.

Time-sensitive announcements. Events, fundraisers and weather alerts called for quicker updates.

THE SOLUTION

A flexible message at the campus entrance

ONYX outdoor display. A front-of-campus installation reaches both road traffic and pedestrians.

Simple digital management. Staff can update announcements in minutes or schedule content in advance.

Vibrant school content. Graphics and photographs give student achievements and event invitations greater presence.

THE RESULTS

Clear communication, backed by service

Julie Valliere Arnold describes the display as a reliable communication tool and an invaluable asset, with responsive service and warranty support from NEXT.

Timely school information

The sign carries important dates, closures, upcoming events and community news for students, parents and neighbors.

More visible event promotion

Graphics and photographs help sports events and fundraising campaigns stand out to passing audiences.

Greater community participation

The school has seen increased awareness and participation in school events and activities.

Less manual updating

Staff can replace physical letter changes with quick digital edits and planned schedules.

A polished campus presence

The display adds a professional appearance while making the school's message more noticeable from a distance.

Responsive warranty support

Arnold says NEXT has responded promptly when service was needed and honored its warranty when parts required attention.

"Our sign has proven to be a consistently reliable and an invaluable asset to our organization."
